

VOTING CONTEST ON THE PUBLIC LIBRARY

It Is Getting Lively, Notwithstanding That It Is Yet Young.

FIRST REPORT ON SUNDAY

The Sun Will Publish Sunday Morning a Result of the Poll for the Week Just Closing, and Requests All Firms in Contest to Make Report.

The contest for the free public library is waxing warmer and warmer every day, and before readers of The Sun are aware it will be warmer than the weather, which is saying a great deal.

The library is a very fine one, consisting of more than 200 volumes and valued at $500. It comprises the works of the most favorite authors, is nicely preserved in case, and is worth the while of any society to secure.

It is astonishing at the interest this contest has assumed, even at this early period. Those who have seen the library appreciate its literary value, and are scrambling for votes by which it might become the property of the society or club of which he or she may belong. The contest has already become warm, and before the closing of the polls on October 14 it is safe to state that an enormous vote will be polled.

The votes will be counted weekly at the various polling places and published in The Sun on Sunday morning of each week. The most popular society, of which there are fifteen in the contest, will be given the library free of charge, and all societies are after this with a vim commendable. Ladies are soliciting votes for their respective societies and clubs, and before the contest ends it promises to be as interesting and warm as a summer campaign.

Merchants and business men who are issuing tickets are expected to count the ballots and make returns to The Sun not later than 6 o'clock each Saturday night while the contest is on. These votes will be counted and published in The Sun of Sunday morning, and by this means the public may keep posted as to the standing of the various contestants.

Please have your votes ready not later than 6 o'clock Saturday evening.

KING-WHITE NUPTIALS.

Marriage at Cedar Key of Popular Young Couple.

Cedar Key, June 14.—One of the most important social events of the season was the marriage of Miss Jennie White and Mr. Alfred L. King, which took place this morning at 4:30 o'clock at the residence of the bride, Rev. W. H. Steinmeyer officiating.

The wedding was a very quiet one—only a few relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties being present. The bride is the daughter of Colonel and Mrs. W. R. White, and being one of Cedar Key's most popular young ladies, will be greatly missed in social and religious life.

The groom is a popular conductor of the Seaboard Air Line Railway, being a native of Alachua county. The bridal couple left on the 5 o'clock train for Waldo, where they will make their future home.

Miss Julia King of Waldo was in Cedar Key to-day in attendance upon the White-King wedding.

That Tired Feeling.

If you are languid, depressed, incapable for work, it indicates that your liver is out of order. Herbine will assist nature to throw off headaches, rheumatism and ailments akin to nervousness and restore the energies and vitality of sound and perfect health. J. J. Hubbard, Temple, Texas, writes: "I have used Herbine for the past two years. It has done me more good than all the doctors. It is the best medicine ever made for chills and fever." 50c. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Mr. Hall's Remains.

The remains of Engineer Hall, who took his own life at Waldo Thursday, were shipped to South Dakota Friday in compliance with the request of the deceased, who left a note. The remains were accompanied by George F. Morris, an old friend and brother K. of P. of the deceased, who will see that they are properly cared for and interred.

The sudden ending of the life of Mr. Hall, who was one of the most popular citizens of Waldo, is generally regretted by the citizens.

LYLE-MIXSON.

Marriage of These Young People as Seen and Noted by a Guest.

On Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock a pretty home wedding was solemnized at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Mixson, when Mr. Ernest Lyle and Miss Georgina Mixson were made one.

The home was beautifully decorated in evergreens, moss, palms and pot plants. Promptly at the appointed time the Wedding March, under the skillful hand of Mr. Harry Pearce, announced the coming of the bridal party. First came Mr. Guy Mixson and Miss Rosalee Smith, next followed Mr. Fred McAtter and Miss Hassie Smith, then the bride and groom. The bride and groom stood under a beautiful bell of roses, which hung in a magnificent arch of evergreens and moss. The silken meshes were woven by Rev. S. B. Rogers, the Baptist minister, in a very impressive manner.

Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple received the congratulations of their relatives and friends, after which all were invited to the dining-room, where ice cream, cake and fruit were served in abundance. Only a few relatives and intimate friends were invited.

The bride was becomingly attired in white silk, rich lace and ribbons. The groom looked his best in a suit of black. The maid of honor, Miss Hassie Smith, wore white silk, and Miss Rosalee Smith wore white swiss. The best man, Mr. Fred McAtter, wore the conventional black, and Mr. Guy Mixson wore a suit of black.

The groom is an enterprising young man of Eve, where he is engaged in the phosphate business.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Mixson. She is a handsome and popular young lady and will be greatly missed by her many friends.

Thursday the happy couple took the noon train over the Atlantic Coast Line for Eve, which place they will make their home.

The presents were numerous and appropriate. The best wishes and congratulations of their many friends are extended to the happy couple for a long, happy and prosperous married life. A GUEST.

A Bad Scare.

Mr. Fawcett's Funeral.

The funeral of the late James R. Fawcett was held from the Methodist church Friday morning and, notwithstanding the hour, a large crowd was present to pay respect to the deceased. The Knights of Honor were present in a body and several members of the Daughters of the Confederacy attended the services, which were conducted by Rev. T. J. Nixon.

The interment was in Evergreen cemetery and many friends followed the remains to their last resting place. The services at the grave were impressive and those who were present will ever remember the last words said over the grave of their departed friend.

Killed by His Own Gun.

Valdosta, Ga., June 16.—James B. Sanders, a prominent merchant of Remerton, was accidentally killed by his rifle, which was discharged while he was coming from a tree on the Withlacoochee river, where he had been shooting from. He and his son went to the river and he was fixing to come down and go home. He handed his rifle to his son, holding the muzzle toward himself. As the young man pulled the rifle through the limbs of the tree, the hammer caught and it was discharged, the steel bullet passing through Sanders' body and he fell to the ground, expiring almost instantly.

Cures Old Sores.

Westmoreland, Kans., May 5, 1902. Ballard Snow Liniment Co.: Your Snow Liniment cured an old sore on the side of my chin that was supposed to be a cancer. The sore was stubborn and would not yield to treatment, until I tried Snow Liniment, which did the work in short order. My sister, Mrs. Sophia J. Carson, Allensville, Missin Co., Pa., has a sore and mistrusts that it is a cancer. Please send her a 50c bottle. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Cotton Oil Men To Organize.

Atlanta, June 16.—About 125 prominent cotton oil and seed men from all parts of the state will gather at Lithia Springs today and tomorrow for the purpose of organizing a state cotton seed crushers' association. It is proposed that this association, if organized, and there seems to be nothing to prevent a thorough organization of the cotton seed men, to co-operate with the interstate association in promoting the interests of the cotton oil industry.

Acute Rheumatism.

Deep tearing or wrenching pains, occasioned by getting wet through, worse when at rest, or on first moving the limbs, and in cold or damp weather, is cured quickly by Ballard's Snow Liniment. Oscar Oleson, Gibson City, Ill., writes, Feb. 16, 1902: "A year ago I was troubled with a pain in my back. It soon got so bad I could not bend over. One bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment cured me." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Cupid Holds Carnival.

Appleton, Wis., June 16.—Five per cent of the population of Little Chute will be married and the 350 Hollanders of the village have great plans for a gala day. Sixteen young people of the privilege yielded to the machinations of Cupid, and all will be wed within a period of six hours. Merchants and citizens generally will join in a big celebration.

Tax on Babies.

Extreme hot weather is a great tax upon the digestive power of babies. When puny and feeble they should be given a few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge, the children's tonic. It will stimulate and facilitate the digestion of their food, so that they soon become strong, healthy and active. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Auto Miles Record Is Lowered.

New York, June 16.—Louis Chevrolet, who has suddenly come to take his place among the best automobile racers in the world, lowered the world's track record for a mile for the second time within a month at the Morris park track. His new time is now 52.15 seconds, beating his own mile track record of 52.45 seconds, made on the same track on May 20.

Will Cure Consumption.

A. A. Herren, Finch, Ark., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar is the best preparation for coughs, colds and lung trouble. I know that it has cured consumption in the first stages." You never heard of anyone using Foley's Honey and Tar and not being satisfied. J. W. McCollum & Co.

You May Be Cured

544 Garfield Avenue,
Chicago, Ill., October 9, 1902.

After doctoring for eleven months and taking forty-three bottles of medicine and finding no relief for leucorrhoea resulting from irritation of a fallen womb I took Wine of Cardui and fourteen bottles cured me. This seems strange but it is the simple truth. Wine of Cardui helped me from the time I began taking it and having heard it praised so highly by friends who had tried it I felt satisfied that it would help me, and it did. It cured me. Took every bit of ache, pain and headache, cramps and dragging down sensations away till I felt young, strong and happy once more. It is a wonderful medicine and a true friend to women. When I look back on the months of torture I had it seems like a hideous nightmare. Wine of Cardui will cure any woman I believe. I have more faith in it than all other medicines combined.

Frances Kingale
Vice-Pres., Chicago Historical Club.

How can you refuse relief when you know you are growing worse day after day? Shooting pains, irregularity, inflammation and bearing down pains make thousands of women miserable. Why drag through life never enjoying anything? Wine of Cardui has made over 1,500,000 weak and suffering women well and strong. We ask you to go to your druggist today and secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui and begin to take it at once. Do that and the health Mrs. Kingale writes about will soon be yours. If you think special directions are needed in your case, address, giving symptoms, Ladies' Advisory Department, The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.
